

WELL INFO

Installation of new wells requires an application and approval of the site prior to installation. All fees must be paid at the time of application. Approval may take up to 21 days. All setback criteria must be met if possible. If setbacks cannot be met, an application for variance must be submitted and evaluated at the next Board of Health meeting.